What is Convocation?

- The NRVC convenes members on a biennial schedule for professional development, networking, and service recognition.
- Convocation is centered around prayer and worship, keynote sessions of learning and fellowship to meet new people who promote vocations for the church.
- The NRVC has conducted Convocation on a biennial schedule since 1988! We are excited to be heading out to the Pacific Northwest for our 2022 Convocation which will be held at the Davenport Grand Hotel, Spokane, WA
- Sr. Teresa Shields, SNJM is leading the Member Area Host Committee in charge of the success of the 2022 NRVC Convocation!
- Attendees relish the opportunity to network with others who are called to religious life and continue with their on-going professional development.

Convocation is November 3 - 6, 2022!

About our Logo:

This vivid artwork embodies the 2022 Convocation theme: Call beyond Borders, recognizing God's endless call to holiness.

The swirling waters, gusty wind, and airborne dove speak of the vibrant symbols of the Holy Spirit moving freely beyond borders.

The Spirit beckons us to be fearless in following Christ through vowed religious life in community, prayer, and ministry; living interculturally and intergenerationally, across multiple frontiers.

About the Artist:

Sister of Providence, Joni Luna, S.P. who integrated her Native American heritage to create this artwork.

Sister Joni entered her congregation in 2012 and made her perpetual profession in 2021. Before profession, an Ojibwe elder gave to her the Native American Spirit name, Gidagaamegwandookwe, which translates to spotted feathered woman. Sr. Joni is an NRVC member, currently serving as vocation director for her congregation
