NRVC Convocation has always fed my mind, nourished my soul, and lifted my spirits. I've always gained greater insights to be a more effective vocation minister and returned home renewed, joyful and even more determined. Hope to see y'all at Convocation 2018!

Pre-Convocation Workshops: (<https://bit.ly/2r59Kxn>)

Issues of Civil, Canon and Immigration Law in Vocation Ministry

Presenters: Sr. Deborah M. Cerullo S.S.N.D., J.D., J.C.L., and Mr. Miguel A. Naranjo

Learn about aspects of law as they pertain to vocation ministry from the corresponding areas of civil, canon, and immigration law. Some areas to be covered will include: assessment policies and record keeping; internal vs. external forum in candidate assessment; policies and practices regarding a candidate's financial assets; salary and tax issues during the formation period; special issues regarding older, widowed and divorced candidates; readmission and community transfers.

Finding your Digital Balance and Reducing Social Media Stress

Presenter: Dr. Crystal Taylor-Dietz, Psy.D.

Technology, from smartphones to social media to virtual reality, is impacting our lives in ways no one could have predicted. While there are certainly benefits to these advances, being overly engaged with technology in its various forms can have long-term negative consequences for psychological and emotional health. This workshop will address the impact of being "plugged in" all the time and offers strategies for managing technology use effectively.

Screening Yellow and Red Flags in Candidate Assessment

Presenter: Dr. Eran Talitman, Ph.D.

This presentation will focus on assisting vocation directors in determining the suitability of individuals seeking to enter religious life. It will specifically examine factors that enhance and detract from the suitability of a candidate. We will address concerns regarding personality disorders, sexual abuse, Asperger's Syndrome, and the use of pornography / social media. Come with your questions, doubts, and grey areas in screening and assessing candidates before application.

ROI Calculator: Grace or Grim?

Presenters: Fr. James J. Greenfield and Fr. Kevin Nadolski, O.S.F.S.

This workshop will address the ups and downs of vocation ministry. ROI is an acronym for return on investment. In vocation ministry, the best programs do not always guarantee success, and the best candidates may change their minds. Therefore, this workshop will explore themes of community expectations alongside societal/cultural realities of young and middle adulthood, the changing landscape of religious life in North America, and best practices for human development and self-care in vocation ministry.

NRVC

National Religious Vocation Conference

About Us:

The National Religious Vocation Conference (NRVC) is a professional organization of vocation ministers that presents religious life as a viable option in the Catholic Church. NRVC promotes vocation awareness, invitation, and discernment to life as a religious sister, brother, or priest. NRVC reflects all forms of religious life and provides educational opportunities, resources, and other supportive services for spiritual, professional, and personal growth.
